

International Law Book Facility

What is the International Law Book Facility (ILBF)?

The ILBF is a UK-based charity with the mission to support the rule of law and access to justice for all by sharing legal knowledge

- The ILBF provides good quality legal textbooks to not-for-profit organisations around the globe
- Since 2005 the ILBF has sent more than 70,000 books to over 200 organisations in 54 countries in Africa, Asia, South America, the Caribbean, the Pacific and Europe
- Organisations who have received books include: judiciaries, law commissions, bar associations, law societies, universities, prisons and pro bono organisations
- The charity is run by eight trustees, including members of the judiciary, barristers' chambers, and law firms
- The ILBF partners with a number of organisations, including the Law Society of England and Wales, the International Bar Association, ROLE UK, & legal publishers

'The establishment of the rule of law is most obvious in underpinning individual liberty and democratic government, but the development of successful modern economies cannot take place without it. No judiciary can accomplish this task without the help of lawyers that have access to good libraries and good libraries themselves.'

The Rt. Hon. The Lord Thomas of Cwmgiedd, ILBF patron and founder, former Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales

Legal texts available

- Books are donated by the UK legal community: from law firms, lawyers and law students, legal publishers, law libraries, universities, barristers' chambers and courts
- Textbooks: practitioner and student texts, on all practice areas, civil and criminal procedure, legal philosophy, and comparative law
- Encyclopaedias: Halsbury's Laws, Atkins Court Forms, EF&P and The Digest
- Law reports: official law reports, All ER, WLR and specialist series

How you can help us...

- Funding: if you can help us with much needed funding:
<https://www.ilbf.org.uk/contact-us-2>
- Books: if you have good quality and relevant legal texts to donate:
<https://www.ilbf.org.uk/contact-us-2>
- Recipients: if your organisation would like to receive legal texts, please apply:
<https://www.ilbf.org.uk/apply-for-books>

'The PNG legal system is common law based and the library users will find these books very useful in enhancing their knowledge of the common law.'

Chief Justice Sir Salamo Injia of Papua New Guinea

'The ILBF's additions to our library, will strengthen our ability to conduct rigorous legal research to inform and enrich the human rights litigation we support.'

Kaajal Ramjathan-Keogh Executive Director of the Southern Africa Litigation Centre

'These books are now a much-valued addition to our library resources and will no doubt be of great use to Judges, Magistrates, lawyers and law students. The Supreme Court of Guyana is deeply grateful and appreciative of this donation.'

Chancellor Carl Singh, Guyana

www.ilbf.org.uk

 facebook.com/International-Law-Book-Facility

 youtube.com/c/IlbfOrgUkFilms

 @LawBookFacility

 International Law Book Facility